

Call for Papers

NGE Spring Workshop 2023

We invite junior stages (untenured) researchers in the fields of public economics, behavioral economics, labor economics, empirical industrial organization, and macroeconomics to submit papers or extended abstracts on any topic to the next NGE Spring Workshop.

When	20 - 21 April 2023
Where	University of Hohenheim (April 20) University of Mannheim (April 21)
Keynote Speakers	Jonas Jessen (EU Viadrina, IZA, BSE, DIW Berlin) Jan Nimczik (ESMT Berlin, BSE, IZA)
Submission Deadline:	15 March 2023

Papers and extended abstracts should be submitted to nge.hohenheim@gmail.com. The University of Hohenheim and the University of Mannheim will jointly host this workshop. In case of financial constraint, NGE can cover the travel costs up to a certain limit. Acceptance decisions will be communicated in the last week of March.

Selected papers from the 2023 Spring Workshop have the chance to be published in a special issue on “Responses to Risky Returns” of the Journal of Risk and Financial Management (ISSN 1911-8074). To be considered for publication in this issue, papers must be submitted to the journal by July 30, 2023.
