

Program 5th Economics of Media Bias Workshop

WZB Berlin Social Science Center, March 31 – April 1, 2022

Thursday, March 31

9.00	-	9.30	COVID-19 self-test
9.30	-	10.00	Reception and opening remarks
10.00	-	11.00	Session 1 (Chair: Marcel Garz)
			Fabrizio Germano, Pompeu Fabra University (p) : Meaningful social interactions, polarization and misinformation: A simple ranking-based model (with V. Gómez and F. Sobbrío)
			Lara Müller, University of Cologne (p) : Debunking “fake news” on social media: short and longer-term effects of fact checking and media literacy interventions (with A. Kerkhof, F. Mindl, and J. Münster)
11.00	-	11.30	Coffee break
11.30	-	12.30	Session 2 (Chair: Anna Kerkhof)
			Antonela Miho (p), Paris School of Economics : Small screen, big echo? Estimating the political persuasion of local television news bias using Sinclair Broadcast Group as a natural experiment
			Ulrich Matter, University of St. Gallen (p) : Search Engines and Filter Bubbles During the 2020 US Elections (with R. Hodler and J. Ladwig)
12.30	-	14.00	Lunch break
14.00	-	15.00	Session 3 (Chair: Johannes Münster)
			Maiting Zhuang (p), Stockholm School of Economics : Media coverage and pandemic behaviour: Evidence from Sweden (with M. Garz)
			Bang Nguyen (p), University of Bayreuth : Electoral Influence of Newspapers in Switzerland (with K. Muth)
15.00	-	15.30	Coffee break
15.30	-	16.00	Session 4
			Vardges Levonyan, University of Zurich (p) : BBC, Brexit, and Balanced Reporting (with G. Crawford)
16.00	-	16.30	Coffee Break
16.30	-	17.30	Session 5 (Chair: Anna Kerkhof)
			Heyu Xiong (v), Case Western Reserve University : Subscription Revenue and Broadcaster Behavior: Evidence from YouTube (with A. Panjwani)
			Gregory Martin (p), Stanford University : Media and Ideological Movements: How Fox News Built the Tea Party (with Z. Li)
18.15			Dinner

Friday, April 1

9.00	-	9.30	COVID-19 self-test
9.30	-	10.00	Coffee
10.00	-	11.00	Session 6 (Chair: Anna Kerkhof) Julia Schmid (p), University of Hohenheim: How much do we Trust the State and what News Media Coverage has to do with it (with H. Theine) Christina Timko (v), Ruhr-University Bochum: Hooked in Apps: Governance by Responsible Interactive Behavioural Design - A Field Study (with M. Roos and N. Schmidt)
11.00	-	11.30	Coffee break
11.30	-	12.30	Session 7 (Chair: Johannes Münster) Olga Slivko (v), Erasmus University: Regulating Online Hate Speech: The Impact of the Network Enforcement Act on Twitter (with R. Andres) Valentin Reich (p), LMU Munich: Gender stereotypes in user-generated content (with A. Kerkhof)
12.30	-	14.00	Lunch
14.00	-	14.45	Keynote Alois Stutzer (p), University of Basel: Media Attention and Political Accountability
14.45	-	15.15	Coffee break
15.15	-	16.15	Session 8 (Chair: Johannes Münster) Serkant Adiguzel (v), Duke University: Favor exchanges and pro-government media bias Milena Djourelova (v), University of Chicago: The Impact of Online Competition on Local Newspapers: Evidence from the Introduction of Craigslist (with R. Durante and G. Martin)
16.30	-	18.30	Guided city center tour
18.30			Dinner

- Venue: WZB Berlin Social Research Center, Reichpietschufer 50, 10785 Berlin
- There are 20 minutes for each presentation, plus 10 minutes for discussion
- p: participation expected on site, v: virtual participation expected
- Organization: Maja Adena, Marcel Garz